[The Bridle: On the si day then] return²; prime receipt; beneficial to determine; regret is gone.

Initial Nine:

Together³ use the yellow ox's bridle.

Six in the Second:

[On the si day] then bridle it;
 to be upright⁴ is auspicious;
 there is no trouble.

[Nine in the Third:

To be upright⁵ is inauspicious];
 determination is [dangerous].
 When bridling words thrice [approach,
 there is] a return.

Nine in the Fourth:

Regret [is gone];
 there is a return that changes⁶ the mandate;
 auspicious.

Nine in the Fifth:

The great man's tiger whip⁷;
 not yet having prognosticated, there is a return.

Elevated Six:

The gentleman's leopard whip;
 the little man bridles [the face;
 to be upright is inauspicious];
 determination about dwelling is auspicious.
