The Great Possession: Prime receipt.

Initial Nine:

There is no exchanging of harm<sup>2</sup> that is not trouble;
if in difficulty<sup>3</sup> then there will be no trouble.

Nine in the Second:

The great cart is used to carry;
there is someplace to go;
there is no trouble.

Nine in the Third:

The duke uses aromatic grass<sup>4</sup> to the Son of Heaven;
the little man is not capable of it.

Nine in the Fourth:

[It is not his] fullness;
there is no trouble.

Six in the Fifth:

His<sup>5</sup> return<sup>6</sup> is crossed-like, stooped-like<sup>7</sup>;
in the end it is auspicious.

Elevated Nine:

From heaven blessing<sup>8</sup> it;
auspicious;
there is nothing not beneficial.
